

75 years since the Spanish Civil War Perspectives from the 21st Century

Programme

9:30- 10:00: Coffee and Welcome

10:00-11:15: Panel 1: Perspectives on Exile

Mari Paz Balibrea (Birkbeck, University of London): ‘Aftermaths of the Civil War: Contesting the National Paradigm in Republican Exile Historiography’

Eva Moreda Rodríguez (University of Glasgow): ‘The Problems of Integrating Exiled Composers into the Spanish Musical Canon: A look at Jaume Pahissa’s Seis canciones para canto y piano’

11:15-11:30: Break

11:30-13:00: Panel 2: Perspectives on Memory

Georgina Blakeley (Open University): ‘Implementing Spain’s Reparation Law: A sharp tool or a blunt instrument?’

Dacia Viejo Rose (University of Cambridge): ‘Legacies of Cultural Violence and the Spanish Civil War’

Gareth Stockey (University of Nottingham): ‘El Valle de los Caídos in the recent Spanish “Memory Wars”’

75 years since the Spanish Civil War Perspectives from the 21st Century

13:00 – 14:00: Lunch and opportunity to watch video exhibition ‘Female Voices from Franco’s Prisons’.

14:00-15:00: PhD Poster exhibition meet and greet.

15:00-16:30: Panel 3: Perspectives on the War

Richard Cleminson (University of Leeds): ‘Dr. Félix Martí Ibáñez, the “Dean” of anarchist writers on issues of sexuality’

James Matthews (University College Dublin): ‘Forced to Fight: Obligatory Military Service during the Spanish Civil War’

Peter Anderson (University of Leeds): ‘Saving the Persecuted? British Government Maritime Rescue Efforts in the Spanish Civil War, 1936-1939’

16:30-16:45: Break

16:45-18:00: Keynote Lecture by Mary Vincent (University of Sheffield)

‘The Nature of Civil War: Spain as a paradigm?’

18.00- 19:00: Wine reception.

